The President, or his Deputy, or the Acting-President as the case may be, or in the absence of all of them, the Registrar shall be the Chairman at such Election Meeting.

17. At least twenty-eight days' notice of the Election Meeting, and of the purpose thereof, shall be given by the proper officer to the respective Members of the Elective Bodies in part (c) of this Chapter mentioned.

18. To be eligible for election a candidate must be nominated by a Nomination Paper signed by two Members of the elective body, which shall be lodged with the proper officer of that Elective Body at least twenty-one days before the Election Meeting, and if the election be by the Academic Council, the candidate must be a Professor of the College, and if the election be by the Graduates of the University who are Members of the College, the candidate must be one of those Graduates.

19. If a candidate who is nominated at an election by the Academic Council is not a Professor of the College, or if a candidate who is nominated at an election by the Graduates of the University who are Members of the College, is not one of those Graduates, the nomination shall be invalid and null.

20. If at any such election no more persons are validly nominated as candidates for election than the number of persons which the elective body is entitled to elect, the candidates so nominated shall be deemed to be elected, and shall be declared by the Chairman of the Election Meeting to be elected accordingly. If more candidates shall be nominated than the elective body is entitled to elect, there shall be a poll.

21. At the appointment by the Senate the poll shall be taken by open voting of the Members of the Senate present and voting.

22. At the election by the Academic Council the poll shall be taken by unsigned Voting Papers of the Members present.

23. At the election by the Graduates the poll shall be taken by Voting Papers marked and sent or delivered to the Scrutineers in accordance with the provisions of the following Sections of this Chapter.

24. For the purpose of such election, as soon as may be after the time for lodging Nomination Papers shall have expired, the Registrar shall prepare and shall send by post, not less than ten days before the Election Meeting to each registered Graduate resident elsewhere than in the United Kingdom, and not less than seven days before the Election Meeting to every other registered Graduate, a Voting Paper containing in dictionary order, the names of all candidates validly nominated for election by the Graduates.

25. Such Voting Paper shall be accompanied by a printed paper of instructions which shall contain the following:—

(a). A direction to the Voter to write his initials opposite the name of the person or persons for whom he votes; to sign the Voting Paper as required by Section 27 of this chapter; and if he desires to vote without being present at the Election Meeting to post the Voting Paper so signed to the Registrar at the College, in sufficient time for it to arrive in the ordinary course of post at least one full day before the day appointed for the Election Meeting.

(b). A copy of Sections of this Chapter.

(c). A statement of the names of the Graduates nominating each person nominated; and

(d). A statement of the number of persons for whom the Graduate is entitled to vote.

26. The Voting Paper shall also be accompanied by an envelope bearing on the outside the name and address of the Registrar and also the words "Voting Paper."

27. The Voting Paper of a Graduate shall, after having been initialled by the voter, be signed by him—

(a) if within the United Kingdom before a Justice of the Peace, a Commissioner of Affidavits, or a Minister of Religion;

(b) if in a Colony or other place in His Majesty's Dominions abroad before any person authorised to administer oaths therein;

(c) in any other place before any of His Majesty's Consuls or Vice-Consuls.

The person before whom the Voting Paper is so initialled and signed shall attest the fact of such Voting Paper having been initialled and signed by the Voter in his presence at the place therein mentioned, by signing his name at the foot thereof, adding his official designation and place of residence, and he shall in all cases certify in writing on the Voting Paper that he personally knows either the Voter or some person who has certified to him in writing on the Voting Paper his personal knowledge of the Voter.

28. The envelope containing the Voting Paper sent to the Registrar by Post, shall bear on the outside the words "Voting Paper."

29. Subject to the provisions of Sections 35 and 36 of this Chapter, the Votes for the Election of Members of the Governing Body by the Graduates shall be the Votes of the Graduates of the University who are registered as Members of the College present at the Election Meeting, given by Voting Papers duly verified and handed to the Scrutineers at the Election Meeting, together with such Votes of Members not present at the Election Meeting as shall have been validly given by Voting Papers duly verified and returned by Post to the Registrar and received by him at the College before the commencement of the Election Meeting.

30. Not less than three days before the day of the Election Meeting, the President, or in his absence his Deputy, or the Acting President, as the case may be, shall appoint three registered Graduates to be Scrutineers.

31. It shall not be necessary that any greater number of Graduates who are registered as Members of the College than two shall be present at the Election Meeting.

32. At the Election Meeting of the Graduates the Registrar shall deliver unopened to the Scrutineers, or in their absence to the Chairman of the Election Meeting such of the envelopes containing the Voting Papers which he has received as bear on the outside the words "Voting Paper."

33. If any Voting Papers have been received by him in envelopes which do not bear such words, and have been opened by him, he shall deliver the same and the Voting Papers which they contained, to the Scrutineers; and those Graduates present at the Election Meeting who have not forwarded to the Registrar Voting Papers duly initialled and signed before the commencement of the Election Meeting, shall, during the Meeting, hand to the Chairman their Voting Papers so duly initialled, signed, and verified.

34. The fact that an envelope containing a Voting Paper sent to the Registrar by post did not bear on the outside the words "Voting Paper" shall not vitiate the vote.

35. At such Election Meeting any Graduate present whose Voting Paper shall not have been received by the Registrar before the commencement of the Election Meeting, who shall give to the Scrutineers evidence satisfactory to them of his identity, and of his having sent his original Voting Paper to the Registrar or of his having lost or spoilt it, shall obtain from the Registrar a Paper marked with the words "Duplicate Voting Paper."

36. If before the termination of the Election Meeting such Graduate procures such duplicate Voting Paper to be duly initialled, signed, and verified, as required in the case of an original Voting Paper, he may hand the same to the Scrutineers who shall count it with the original Voting Papers; but in case an original Voting Paper issued to any Graduate who shall have obtained a duplicate Voting Paper shall be received by the Scrutineers, they shall count the original Voting Paper only.

37. The Scrutineers shall examine and shall count the votes, and in any case of doubt as to the validity of a vote shall determine the same. The decision of the Scrutineers or the decision of the majority of them shall be final.

38. They shall report in writing to the Chairman of the Election Meeting the result of the Voting; and if they are equally divided as to the validity of any vote, the question shall be determined by the Chairman at the Election Meeting.

39. At the Election Meeting of the Senate, of the Academic Council, and of the Graduates of the University who are Members of the College respectively, at which the Election is by poll, the Chairman shall declare the persons who have obtained the greatest number of lawful votes, not exceeding the number of persons whom such Elective Body is entitled to elect, to have been duly elected as Members of the Governing Body.

40. In case there shall be an equality of lawful votes, for two or more persons, and the number of persons who have obtained a greater number of lawful votes together with the number of persons having an equality of lawful votes shall be greater than the number of persons whom the Elective Body is entitled to elect, the election as between the persons having such equality of votes shall be determined by the casting vote of the Chairman at the Election Meeting.

41. The Chairman shall declare the person or persons whose election has been so determined, with any other person who had obtained a greater number of lawful votes, to be duly elected.

42. Immediately after any such election by the Senate the Registrar of the University, and immediately after any such election by the Academic Council or by the Graduates, the Registrar or other proper officer of the College shall give notice thereof to the Secretary or other proper officer of the College.

(d.) General Provisions.

43. If at any Election Meeting of an Elective Body, at which pursuant to the Statutes an election of Members of the Governing Body ought to be held, there shall not be a quorum present, the election shall, nevertheless, be proceeded with, and shall not be invalidated by reason of the absence of a quorum.

44. In the event of any person being nominated by His Majesty and also elected by an Elective Body, the Secretary or other proper officer, shall immediately send notice to him in writing of his having been so nominated and elected, requesting him to declare within one week in writing, whether, notwithstanding his nomination by His Majesty, he will continue to represent the Elective Body by which he was elected. On making such declaration he shall be a nominee of His Majesty on the future Governing Body or a representative thereon of the Elective Body according to his choice: and thereupon a casual vacancy shall occur, as the case may be, either among the Members of the Governing Body nominated by His Majesty or among the representatives of the Elective Body by which such person was elected.

45. In the event of any person failing to make the declaration mentioned in the preceding Section within the time therein specified he shall be deemed if nominated by His Majesty to have elected to continue to be a nominee of His Majesty; and a casual vacancy shall thereupon occur among the representatives of the Elective Body by which such person was elected.

46. In the event of any person being elected by more than one Elective Body, the Registrar shall immediately send notice to him in writing of his having been so elected, requesting him to declare within one week in writing which Elective Body he will represent. On making such declaration he shall be a representative of each of said Elective Bodies as he shall choose; and thereupon a casual vacancy shall occur among the representatives of any Elective Body by which he was elected other than that which he has chosen to represent.

47. In the event of any person failing to make the declaration mentioned in the preceding Section within the time therein limited, the President shall, at the first Meeting of the Governing Body held after the expiration of the time specified for making such declaration, determine the matter by lot, and a casual vacancy shall thereupon occur among the representatives of any Elective Body by whom such person was elected other than of that which it shall have been so determined such person shall represent.

48. In the event of any Elective Body failing to return the full number of representatives which it is entitled to elect within the time prescribed in this Statute, the vacancies to be filled shall be deemed to be casual vacancies.

49. After the expiration of the period of office of an outgoing Governing Body a Meeting of such persons, if any, as may have been then nominated by His Majesty, and of the persons so elected, shall be called for the earliest convenient day, of which not less than seven days' notice shall be given to each Member.

50. At such first Meeting the Members present shall co-opt four additional Members.

(c.) Casual Vacancies.

51. Whenever a casual vacancy shall occur in the first or any subsequent Governing Body amongst the Members nominated by His Majesty, the Secretary shall forthwith give notice, in writing, to the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, and shall request him to procure His Majesty's pleasure to be taken as to the person whom His Majesty shall nominate to fill the vacancy.

52. The notice to the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant shall be accompanied by a copy of the Statutes of the College, and shall direct his attention to the provisions of the Charter which refer to His Majesty's nomination to such vacancy.

53. Whenever in any Governing Body other than the first, a casual vacancy shall occur amongst the elected Members, the Secretary, on being informed of the occurrence thereof, shall forthwith give notice, in writing, of the vacancy to the elective body among whose representatives the vacancy has occurred, and thereupon a Meeting of such Elective Body shall be held not less than one month nor more than two months after receipt of such notice in writing, upon a day appointed by the Chancellor, or the President of the Constituent College, or the Chairman of the County Council, as the case may be, for the purpose of electing to fill the vacancy.

PROVIDED, that the time so appointed shall not be in the months of July, August, or September; and if the day which would have been appointed for such Meeting under this Section but for this proviso, would have fallen in any of these three months, the time to be appointed for the Meeting shall be some day in the month of October next ensuing.

54. Such election shall be held in the mode in this Chapter prescribed for the election by such Elective Body of its representatives upon the expiration of the period of office of an outgoing Governing Body.

55. Whenever, in any Governing Body other than the first a casual vacancy shall occur amongst the co-opted Members of the Governing Body, the Secretary, upon being informed of the occurrence thereof, shall, as soon as may be, give notice thereof to the Members of the Governing Body, and of the date of the Meeting at which the vacancy is to be filled.

56. Such Meeting shall be either an Ordinary Meeting of the Governing Body or a Special Meeting called by direction of the President for the purpose of the election, but the Meeting shall not in either case be held earlier than twenty-one days after notice of the vacancy shall have been given by the Secretary to each Member of the Governing Body.

57. No act or proceeding of the Governing Body shall be invalidated by any vacancy amongst its Members, or by any defect in the mode of appointment of any of its Members.
